

For over 38 years, Duncan Cowpie has began each day with the same, simple prayer...

*“Dear lord,” he would say, “help me to make the tastiest barbecue and lubricant products that have ever been seen on this beautiful land that You have created.
And also, please let all my enemies and competitors incur the torment of your horrible, almighty wrath.”*

And for those 38 years, his daily prayer for delicious barbecue and lube has been answered, while his enemies have been smited with terrible car accidents and mysterious disappearances.
